The New England Snafu?

It was supposed to offer healing, support, understanding, spirituality, safety. But the fruits have been a patchwork from Hell.

Mary Baker Eddy, founder of the Christian Science movement.

In many respects, things were quite different back in the Ninteteenth Century: people didn't yet have personal computers, smartphones and tablets, the Internet, or many contemporary advances that we might have (until recently) taken for granted.

And many things back then seem to still take place nowadays: the structural, systemic exploitation, abuse, violence, harm, all coordinated to benefit a handful of sadistic people in the upper echelons of manmade societal, institutional, systemic structures being just some of many sad examples!

WHAT IS IT?

Christian Science is the name of a religious movement and healing system, established by Mary Baker Eddy beginning in the Nineteenth Century.

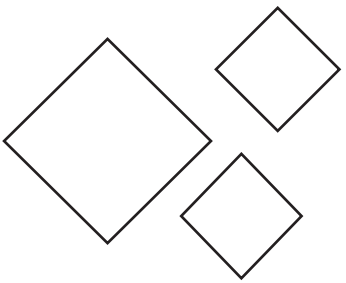
WHAT IS ITS TRACK RECORD?

This could get complicated: Christian Science's track record is, at best, highly variable!

WHAT ARE SOME (AT LEAST APPARENT, MAYBE SOMETIMES ACTUAL) SUCCESSES?

Some successes that have been (at least) claimed by folks in the Christian Science movement, and may (at least) sometimes truly be actual, include:

1. Healings of/recovery from various serious diseases and illnesses.
2. Financial improvements and/or resolutions
3. Resolutions of disagreements, conflicts, etc.



Please note: Stimming Jim has (some) experience in the Christian Science Movement.

WHAT ARE SOME FAILINGS?

1. Many children (and adults) have died from (often preventable, curable, or, at least, ameliorable) sicknesses. Some of these cases have been especially egregious.
2. Generally, disability, including autism, is viewed through the pathology model, and not the social model, of disability.
3. Exclusion of neurodivergent, autistic, and/or other minority peoples, including via planned ignoring and "healing" attempts, is widespread and systemic.
4. Many crimes and atrocities have been committed by students of Christian Science, including (at least) some of the Watergate Affair's misdeeds.
5. Many students of Christian Science appear to enable and/or be actively involved in MLMs and other harmful schemes.
6. White supremacy is (still) prevalent.
7. Planned ignoring (and even worse) is often used on dissidents, as with (other) high-control groups.

WHAT IS THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MOVEMENT APPARENTLY OFFERING?

1. Healing
2. Safety
3. Spirituality
4. Support

WHAT DO PEOPLE OFTEN EXPERIENCE INSTEAD?

1. The "silent treatment"
2. Pain and suffering
3. Abandonment
4. Behaviorism
5. Death (without dignity)

IT SURE LOOKS LIKE WE'VE GOT A NEW ENGLAND SNAFU ON OUR HANDS!

Is It All Finally Falling Apart?

The oppressive systems that a bunch of people decided was best for us all appear to be finally falling apart. Now what?

Prices are going up. Service quality is going down. Sanctified bullshit seems to be taking over more and more things.

Institutions that are supposed to be protecting us are either failing us, getting gutted/shut down, or both.

Unrest is skyrocketing, and so are deprivation, pain, human trafficking, other violent atrocities, apathy.

It does seem that it is all falling apart!

So, What Now?

1. Let's learn whatever we can, and feed our heads with useful, wonderful things!
2. Let's support one another more!
3. Let's rest, and let's refuse to overwork or be overworked!
4. Let's be prepared, even if we're scared!
